

CAN YOU FIT YOUR ARM IN THIS HOLE?

SOME REFUGEE CHILDREN CAN.

Worldwide, malnutrition is a factor in half of all children's deaths. Refugees and internally displaced persons often must flee their homes, leaving everything behind – food, clothing, belongings and identification. Many are displaced for years. Some never go home. There are more than 43 million displaced people in the world today – more than half are children.

www.msf.ca

1 800 982-7903

